ane 7 in Ventura County.
No control was in sight for the Santa Paula fire, Waltrip said.
The flames raced through an oil tank field in the early morning, but combustible material around the tanks had been cleared away so none was damaged, he said.
On the other front, firefighters strained to keep the flames from timber stands. From 500 to 600 acres of brush in the national forest were consumed, Waltrip said.
If the fire gets into timber it will be inaccessible to ground firefighting efforts because there are no roads or firebreaks, he added.

Personal Income in Slowdown

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
WASHINGTON (AP) — Personal income, partly reflecting the pinch of the Ford Motor Co. strike, increased by $2 billion during September, its smallest advance in four months, the Commerce Department reported today.

Despite the slowdown, however, income rose to a record annual rate of $633.5 billion, seasonal lay adjusted.

The September gain was less than half the $4.5 billion increase during August and the $4.4 billion jumps the two previous months.

The department's report followed by one day an announcement by the Federal Reserve Board that strikes in the auto, copper and steel hauling industries produced the biggest drop in industrial output since last February after two months of substantial gain.

Wages and salaries, at an annual rate of $427.6 billion, were up only $900 million during September, compared with the $3.3 billion advance the previous month.

This was the smallest monthly increase in payrolls since May.

The department said payrolls in commodity-producing industries affected by strikes were down about $250 million during September compared with an August advance of about $2 billion.

Administration officials, however, contend that production and incomes slowed by strikes will be more than made up after settlements are reached.

They are consequently sticking to their insistence for a 10 per cent surcharge on individual and corporate taxes, Congress is just as insistent in its contention that spending should be reduced first.

Other types of income, except for dividends, increased during September, rising for the third straight month, the department said.

Gave Twins to the Navy Too

CORSHAM, England (AP)— Shorley Denman decided that if the Navy was going to keep her husband, John, it could keep her 16-month-old twins, too.

She left the twins, a boy and a girl, along with a bassinette and a week's supply of food and clothes, at the gate of the navy base at Corsham today.

Mrs. Denman's complaint was that after just returning from 18 months in Singapore, her 27-year-old husband had been ordered to leave again and that "John is so much of a stranger at home that our eldest daughter Frances calls him, 'that man.'"

The base chaplain returned the twins to Mrs. Denman.

Plane Search Continues in This Area

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Civil Air Patrol resumed the search this morning for businessman-farmer Margin Melton, 65, of Jonesboro, although bad weather continued to hamper operations.

Five airplanes and three Arkansas National Guardhelicoptters were aloft this morning, but a spokesman for the CAP said more planes were expected to join the search as the weather improved. He said a total of 20 to 25 aircraft were expected to take part today.

The helicopters were searching a triangular area between Arkadelphia, Malvern and Bismarck (Hot Spring County), where they searched without success Monday.

Bad weather hampered operations Monday.
Melton disappeared Friday while on a flight from Jonesboro to Dallas.

ANTI-DRAFT (From Page 1)

persons tried unsuccessfully to push their way into the federal building to surrender their draft cards at the U.S. marshal's office.

There were 10 arrests at the Selective Service Center in Champaign, Ill., following a rain-drenched demonstration on the University of Illinois campus. Two of the youths claimed to have burned their draft cards.

In Portland, Ore., three youths were seized for disorderly conduct in an anti-draft demonstration after they refused to leave state Selective Service headquarters. About 300 more protesters stood outside.

The draft cards of several Americans in London wound up in the lost and found department at the U.S. Embassy there after they tried to hand the cards over to embassy officials.

Hostile bystanders jeered as five young men burned what they said were their draft cards during a rally outside Independence Hall in Philadelphia.

The Rev. David M. Gracie, urban missionary for the Episcopal diocese of Pennsylvania, lauded the "courage and imagination" of 175 persons attending the demonstration.

Nearly 300 demonstrators were locked out of the federal building in Los Angeles. Two representatives carrying a bucket with 55 draft cards were later allowed inside.

Two youths burned what they described as draft cards at the federal building in Cincinnati, Ohio. When a draft official refused to accept cards from some 150 youths an envelope with 27 cards was thrown on his desk.

In Washington, D.C., 10 demonstrators talked with Col. Daniel O. Omer, deputy director of Selective Service, and left him an envelope containing registration certificates.

Fifteen Cornell students turned in draft cards at Selective Service headquarters in Ithaca, N.Y. About 200 students backed by some professors had demonstrated earlier.

There were also demonstrations in Denver, Cedar Rapids, Iowa, Albany, and Poughkeepsie, N.Y., Pittsburgh, P.ovi-dence, R.I. and San Francisco.

Civil Rights Case May Go to Jury

Associated Press Writer
MERIDIAN, Miss. (AP) — Lawyers for 18 white men charged with conspiracy in the 1964 slaying of three civil rights workers predict the case will go to the jury Wednesday.

Defense attorney Travis Buckley of Laurel said only a few witnesses remain before rebuttal and closing arguments.

"It could possibly go to the jury late today," Buckley said.
"But I doubt it. The jury will probably get the case Wednesday morning."

Buckley said the defense could have finished Monday, but the battery of 12 attorneys decided at a weekend meeting to put additional witnesses on the stand.

There were 57 witnesses called during a seven-hour session Monday. Before the weekend break, the defense marched 40 witnesses to the stand. Two Negroes told the all-white seven woman and five man jury that Ku Klux Klan Imperial Wizard Sam Holloway Bowers was "a good man."

J.C. Powe and Amie Coleman both gave that description of the Klan leader. Mrs. Coleman added, "and he's a very nice person."

The witnesses fell in one of two categories: alibi or character.

Witnesses gave 13 of the 18 defendants alibis for the night of the slaying in Neshoba County on June 21, 1964.

The day was a Sunday and Fathers Day, many witnesses said so they remembered the day clearly.

Here are alibis provided by witnesses:

E. G. "Hop" Barnette was at a friend's home during the day and at the hospital to visit his sick wife and daughter at night.
About 9 p.m. he paid respects at a funeral home to a dead friend.

Billy Wayne Posey and his wife were hosts to his mother and father for supper and later went to bed.

Deputy Sheriff Cecil Price was called to rescue a 15-year-old girl from the clutches of two young men she had run away with into the woods.

He was out shortly before midnight, hunting the trio, and took the boys to jail.

Alton Wayne Roberts had planned to go dancing with a friend, but couldn't find a babysitter, and the friend said he sat at Roberts' home talking.

James Harris worked on a car at his brother's home.

Jimmy Arledge spent the night at his mother-in-law's house after a Father's Day meal.

Herman Tucker worked on the pond dam of Glen Burrage, where the bodies were buried,
but came home about 9 p.m.
and ate supper and went to bed—before the three workers were slain about midnight.

Burrage had company during the afternoon and he spent the night helping nurse his wife's sick sister.

Frank Herndon was "in and out" of his Meridian restaurant most of the day but showed up at his trailer home at 9 p.m. and left, then returned at midnight.

B. L. Akin, a Mobile home dealer, interviewed a man for a job that afternoon and evening.

Jerry McGrew Sharpe spent the evening and night at his home.

Rev. E.C. Killen ate dinner at a family reunion then accompanied his father to a Philadelphia funeral home.

Travis Barnette went fishing with his children and friends during the afternoon and then worked in a garden with companions until dark, when they went inside and shelled peas.

Jimmy Snowden's wife was ruled ineligible to testify to his whereabouts because she had been in the courtroom and had heard previous testimony.

There were no alibi witnesses for Neshoba County Sheriff Lawrence Rainey, Bowers, Horace Doyle, Barnette and Richard Andrew Willis.

Only Horace Doyle Barnette had been linked in earlier testimony to actually being at the scene of the slaying. A statement Barnette gave to the FBI was introduced into evidence against him last week.

The 18 men are charged with violating the civil rights of Michael Schwerner, 24, Andrew Goodman, 20, both white and from New York, and James Chaney, 22, Meridian, Miss.

Cal, Purdue, UCLA Top Grid Poll

By BEN OLAN
Associated Press Sports Writer
The luck of the Irish faded completely today when Notre Dame dropped from the list of ranking college football teams while Southern California held a solid lead in The Associated Press' weekly poll. Tennessee and Wyoming made their first appearances in the Top Ten.

Notre Dame, favored to repeat as national champions, tumbled all the way out as a result of its 24-7 setback by Southern California Saturday. The Irish were fifth a week ago.

The Trojans, unbeaten in five games, collected 36 first-place votes and 432 points in the balloting by a national panel of 44 sports writers and broadcasters.

Purdue held second place with seven votes for the top position and 389 points on a basis of 10 for a first-place vote, nine for second etc. The Boilermakers overwhelmed Ohio State 41-6 for their fourth triumph against no losses.

UCLA, a 37-14 victor over California for its fifth victory, advanced one place to third. The Bruins accumulated 325 points in the poll.

Colorado is fourth followed by North Carolina State, Alabama, Tennessee, Georgia, Houston and Wyoming in that order.

Colorado climbed two places after trouncing Missouri 23-9. North Carolina State zoomed four positions on the strength of its 31-9 triumph over Maryland while Alabama moved up one place to sixth. The Crimson Tide defeated Vanderbilt 35-21 for a 3-0-1 mark.

Tennessee, beaten by UCLA in its opener, zoomed into the No. 7 spot after defeating Georgia Tech 24-13. Georgia, upset by Mississippi 29-20, slipped from third to eighth.

The Houston Cougars, idle last weekend, advanced to ninth place, a gain of one notch. Wyoming, 5-0 after its 28-0 thumping of Utah, completes the list of ranked teams.

Nebraska, No. 8 a week ago, also slipped from the rankings after its 10-0 setback by Kansas. The Top Ten, with first place votes in parentheses and total points on a 10-9-8-etc. basis:

1. Southern Calif. (36) 432
2. Purdue (7) 389
3. UCLA 325
4. Colorado 280
5. No. Carolina St. (1) 227
6. Alabama 222
7. Tennessee 109
8. Georgia 88
9. Houston 87
10. Wyoming 79

Oakland Is Now a Major Sports Center

By CHARLES MCMURTRY
Associated Press Sports Writer
OAKLAND, Calif. (AP) — Oakland, after living unhappily for decades in the sports shadow of transbay San Francisco, suddenly has become a major league and is challenging San Francisco for leadership in Northern California.

Oakland—population 400,000 but with four million within an hour's drive—looks confidently to acquiring the American League's baseball Athletics from Kansas City. A's owner Charles O. (for Oakland?) Finley publicly has said Oakland is his choice and he will plead with AL owners in Chicago Wednesday for permission to move. He needs votes of seven of the 10 owners.

Robert T. Nahas, unsalaried president of Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum, Inc., will lead a delegation of Oakland officials to the AL meeting. The coliseum is a $28 million three-structure complex offering facilities for every sport and already housing many.

Oakland claims 4½ major sports: The Oakland football Raiders, California hockey Seals, Oakland soccer Clippers, Oakland basketball Oaks and half of the San Francisco basketball Warriors, who play 18 of their 22 home games in the Oakland Arena.

That matches San Francisco in everything except baseball, whose National League Giants moved there a decade ago. Nahas has prepared a 36-page contract with a basic 20-year lease and four five-year options to make it a 40-year deal. He has radio and television offers with a $705,000 potential the first year and growth prospects.

Finley realized only $160,000 from television and radio the past season.

Oakland's coliseum complex has been described by Del E. Webb, former co-owner of the New York Yankees, and others as the world's best all-around sports facility. Its stadium seats 50,000 for baseball and 53,000 for football or soccer.

Its beautiful arena—with no posts and every seat having a perfect view of the action—seats 12,500 to 14,000 for indoor events.

It has an exhibition hall with 50,000 square feet; 120,000 when combined with the arena. It has housed food, flower, home and boat shows.

The stadium had a standing room sellout of 53,454 fans for the first 8 American-National Football League game this fall between the Oakland Raiders and the San Francisco 49ers.

Fully in use less than a year, the complex has hosted more than two million people and has returned $1.3 million to Coliseum, Inc.

The Oakland Raiders pioneered big league sports into Oakland in 1960 and are given a large share of credit for inspiring the coliseum complex.

The Raiders, who hope to have their first profitable season this year, have cost multimillionaire Wayne Valley and Edward McCall, only survivors of the original franchise owners, and others a few million dollars. But their property is estimated worth $10 to $12 million and that would mean a profit if they sold it.

Valley and McCall and various changing partners struggled through two disastrous seasons — $500,000 or more loss each year — in San Francisco's Kezar Stadium and Candlestick Park.

Hall Rated Best Team in State

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Two things stand in the way of the "Dream Game" of the 1967 year in Arkansas high school football. Those two things are the football teams at Texarkana and Benton.

Fort Smith Northside plays at Texarkana Friday night while Little Rock Hall plays at Benton.

Northside and Hall finished in a tie this week for the top spot in the Associated Press Arkansas high school football poll with 122 points each. Both teams drew six first place votes, six seconds and one third. Northside plays Hall Oct. 27 at Little Rock.

Northside figures to have a lot rougher time reaching Little Rock undefeated. Texarkana is the only Class AAA team besides the Warriors and the Grizzlies which is still undefeated and the Razorbacks are a solid third choice in the poll.

Hall doesn't figure to have as much trouble with Class AA Benton. The Panthers do not appear as strong as usual and have suffered five losses.

Little Rock Central, a 7-6 winner over fourth-ranked North Little Rock, climbed from fifth to fourth. Springdale, which beat Fayetteville 13-0, moved from sixth to fifth and North Little Rock dropped to sixth.

Conway, which has won seven straight and plays North Little Rock this week, remained in seventh place. Sheridan continued to hold down the eighth spot while El Dorado remained ninth and Pine Bluff tenth.

Conway and Sheridan blanked their opponents last week while El Dorado was idle. Pine Bluff lost to Hall 28-7.

Conway and Sheridan continued atop the Class AA rankings and Little Rock Catholic moved back into the third spot. The Rockets defeated Class AAA Jacksonville last week. Third-ranked Forrest City was defeated by Newport.

Fordyce jumped from third to first in Class A as Hamburg and Brinkley, the top two teams in the division, were beaten. Nashville moved into the second spot and Berryville took over third.

Stamps and Gillett continue to run one-two in Class B. Farmington gained the third spot, replacing Rison.

Here are the results of the poll with first place votes and team records in parentheses and total points at right:

1. LR Hall (6) (6-0) 122
2. (tie) FS Northside (6) (7-0) 122
3. Texarkana (6-0) 104
4. LR Central (5-1) 88
5. Springdale (6-1) 71
6. North Little Rock (5-2) 67
7. Conway (7-0) 51
8. Sheridan (1) (7-0) 38
9. El Dorado (3-3) 18
10. Pine Bluff (4-3) 9

Others receiving votes, listed alphabetically: Forrest City, FS Southside, Gentry, LR Catholic, Malvern, Magnolia, Marianna, Rogers and West Memphis.

Class AA
1. Conway (12) (7-0) 38

Juniors Tried Hard But Just Couldn't Win

By RALPH ROUNTON
Star Sports Writer

Fighting with all they had right down to the finish, the Hope Bobkittens failed to break the unbeaten skein of Nashville Jr. High, as the Scrappers pulled it out 6-0 on a final period TD Thursday night at Nashville.

In spite of injuries to Hope's "Fearsome Foursome", the rest were able to tighten up the loose ends for an outstanding performance. The "Foursome" included star backs Danny Putman and Gary Jones, and linemen Joe Fouse and Ken McMahon. Putman has been out for two weeks with torn knee cartilage. Jones, who has rushed for 400 yards this season, has been suffering from a shoulder separation; both Jones and Putman should return to action this week.

Tackle Joe Fouse is out for the season after breaking his leg against Prescott, and Ken McMahon severely sprained his ankle earlier in the week. Add to that the fact that No. 1 guard Scott Gunter has been playing with broken fingers, and you have a star-studded injury list.

Still, the Kittens fought hard, maintaining a scoreless tie for three normal quarters of football. Hope actually scored on a 65-yard pass play from Ronnie Massanelli to Charles Rateliff early in the game, but it was nullified by a clipping penalty.

Nashville's score came late in the game on a 19-yard sweep by Larry Walston, but the extra point was no good.

Thursday night the Kittens will celebrate Homecoming, hosting the College Hill Bears of Texarkana. Della Jordan is the Junior High Homecoming Queen for 1967-1968.

Steelers' Nix Doing Job at Q-back

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Kent Nix was thrown into the Pittsburgh Steelers' quarterback job three weeks ago, a nervous and scared rookie.

"I just wasn't sure of myself," he said, "I was real nervous — but I guess that's to be expected. I wasn't sure I could do the job. I didn't have confidence in myself."

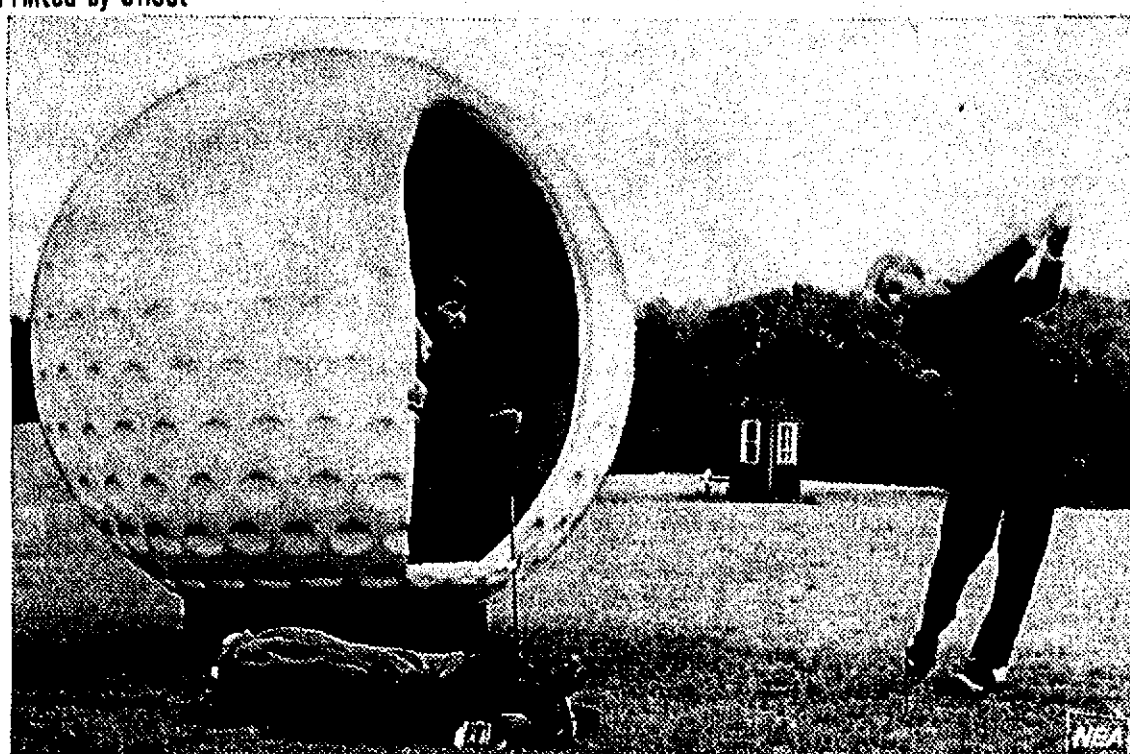

Now Nix says the pressure has lessened and his confidence soars with each game. Although the Steelers have lost all three, he's conceded a good chance to keep his job even when Bill Nelsen comes off the injured reserve list.

"Every game I feel less pressure and more confidence in knowing what I can do," Nix says. "I feel I've done an adequate job but I'm still not wholly satisfied. I've got a lot to learn."

Nix, the only first-year quarterback playing regularly in the National Football League, was an instant hit with the Pittsburgh fans by doing well some of the things that gave Nelsen trouble.

They like the way he avoids being thrown for losses, scrambling when in trouble, throwing under pressure, or out of bounds if necessary. And each week he gets better.

Nelsen was dumped nine times in two games and it looked like the Steelers again would lead the league in quarterback losses. But since Nelsen has been out, Nix has been thrown for losses only five times.

GETTING INTO THE GAME is easy with this new on-the-course shelter to protect golfers caught unexpectedly in bad weather. This prototype of the glass fiber shelter, made as an exact shape of a golf ball, is shown at Sunningdale, England. Its developers claim it can be erected within one hour.

Williams Is Manager of the Year

By BEN OLAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Dick Williams, a former journeyman ballplayer, who took over the lowly Boston Red Sox from a one-time great second baseman and directed them to the top of the American League, was an overwhelming choice today as the circuit's Manager-of-the-Year for 1967.

Williams, a rookie field boss, was named by 324 of the 397 baseball writers and broadcasters who participated in the annual Associated Press poll.

Eddie Stanky of the Chicago White Sox was second with 35 votes followed by Bill Rigney of California, 15. Mayo Smith of Detroit drew nine votes and Minnesota's Cal Ermer had eight.

Williams replaced Billy Herman, former Chicago Cubs' standout infielder, as the Boston skipper after the club had finished ninth for the second straight season.

The 38-year-old St. Louis native was brought up from Toronto of the International League where he accumulated his only two years of managerial experience. He guided Boston to a pennant victory with two consecutive triumphs over Minnesota on the regular season's final weekend.

While slugging outfielder Carl Yastrzemski and ace pitcher Jim Lonborg led the way, Williams also utilized to the club's advantage the talents of a number of player he helped develop at Toronto. They included outfielder Reggie Smith, second

Hagan Brings Dallas a Pro Cage Team

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Old pro Cliff Hagan and a group of young former collegians inaugurated professional basketball in Dallas and Texas, more noted as the football state of the country.

Hagan, who has spent more than 20 of his 35 years on various basketball courts, came out of retirement Monday night. He led the Dallas Chaparrals to a 129-125 victory over the Anaheim Amigos in an American Basketball Association game before a crowd of 3,200.

Hagan retired in 1966 as an active player with the St. Louis Hawks of the National Basketball Association after scoring more than 13,000 points in 10 seasons.

When Dallas became a charter member of the new ABA this year, Hagan was hired as playing coach. The knowledge gained in a decade of playing in the older league easily showed on the floor Monday night.

His 35 points, one more than All-America Bob Verga of Duke and the Chaparrals, was high for both teams as was his 12 rebounds and eight assists.

The loss was the second for Anaheim, which was led by Steve Chubbin's 24 points.

No other games were played in the ABA or NBA.

Porker Cage Practice Draws 19

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — The Arkansas Razorback basketball team worked out for two hours Monday in their first practice of the season.

Razorback Coach Duddy Walker said 19 players reported for practice, including four lettermen.

"As in all early workouts, you don't get all the things done that you want to," Walker said. However, he called the effort good.

Baker Wins
CHARLOTTE, N.C. (AP) — Buddy Baker, driving a Dodge Charger, won the National 500-mile stock car race and the $19,337 first prize with an average speed for the 334 laps of 130.186 m.p.h.

Nat'l Loop Places 6 on Dream Team

NEW YORK (AP) — The National League placed six players and the American League four on the Major League Baseball All-Star team for 1967 selected in The Associated Press' annual poll.

Outfielders Roberto Clemente of Pittsburgh and Hank Aaron of Atlanta and first baseman Orlando Cepeda, each a leader in an important hitting category, were among the NL players named to the squad. Clemente won the batting crown with a .357 mark. Aaron led in homers with 33 and Cepeda in runs batted in with 111.

Third baseman Ron Santo of the Chicago Cubs, catcher Tim Lincecum of St. Louis and left-handed pitcher Mike McCormick of San Francisco were the other National Leaguers picked.

Representing the American League on the first team were outfielder Carl Yastrzemski of Boston, the circuit's triple crown winner, right-handed pitcher Jim Lonborg, also of the Red Sox, rookie second baseman Rod Carew of Minnesota and shortstop Jim Fregosi, California.

Yastrzemski, who led in batting with .326 and RBIs, 121, and tied Minnesota's Harmon Killebrew in homers at 44, drew the most votes from among the 403 baseball writers and broadcasters who voted in the balloting. Yaz had 380 votes. Clemente was next with 373 followed by Cepeda with 347.

Named to the second team were second baseman Julian Javier and outfielder Curt Flood of St. Louis, third baseman Brooks Robinson and outfielder Frank Robinson of Baltimore, outfielder Al Kaline and Catcher Bill Freehan of Detroit, southpaw pitcher Gary Peters and right-handed pitcher Joe Horlen of the Chicago White Sox, shortstop Rico Petrocelli.

Miss Cooke, Matson Win Medals Easily

MEXICO CITY (AP) — While Yoshinobu Miyake of Japan was having some troubles despite winning a gold medal, Pandy Matson and Charlotte Cooke easily collected the first two golds for the United States in the Pre-Olympic Games Monday.

Matson of Pampa, Tex., put the shot 65 feet 2 1/2 inches, well off his world record of 70-7 1/2, and then sprinted to catch a plane back to his studies at Texas A&M.

Miss Cooke of Washington, D.C., stuck around after a more satisfying performance of 52.4 seconds in the women's 400 meters, a Games record which was her career best and only a half-second off the world record.

Miyake was not so happy. He wasn't mad because his name was misspelled. Nor did he complain about official results being slow.

But that moving floor is just more than a man can stand.

"The floor is no good," Miyake shouted after almost popping a button in two little assaults on a world weightlifting record.

"It's like trying to lift weight in an airplane or on a boat."

Miyake equalled his feather-weight Olympic record in the jerk on his way to Japan's first gold medal in this rehearsal for the 1968 Olympic Games, but failed to break his jerk world record or the snatch record.

Weightlifting is held on a reinforced theater stage.

"I can't break records here because the floor shivers and gives," he said. "The floor is no good."

Some athletes still had other reasons for complaining as the stacked-down of the Mexican Olympic Organizing Committee went into its third day. Official results still were slow in coming at the track and field competition, adding to worries of athletes who came to check their performance at high altitude.

Today, finals at the Olympic stadium were on tap in the women's shot put and long jump and the men's pole vault, 200 meters and discus. A field of 27 fought through three heats for a place in Thursday's 1,500-meter final.

Anton Roelants of Belgium topped victory in the 3,000-meter steeple chase, a big grin crossing the world record-holder's face as he broke the tape yards ahead of his nearest competitor in the relatively slow time of eight minutes, 57.8 seconds.

Other medal winners were Magnolia Gobian of Cuba in the women's 100 meters, Valentin Khramov of the Soviet Union in the men's high jump, Jean-Paul Lafont of France in the men's 400 meters, Kjetil Andre Aunli of Norway in the women's 100 meters, and Anamaria Dobos of Hungary in the women's pentathlon.

Finley Wants to Move to California

CHICAGO (AP) — Charles O. Finley, owner of the Kansas City Athletics, will go before a meeting of American League owners Wednesday seeking permission to shirk the franchise to Oakland, Calif.

"I'm hopeful but that's all," Finley told The Associated Press. "The only thing I'm sure of is one vote and that's my own. I still need six more."

Finley, who last month notified Kansas City officials that he did not intend to exercise his option on Municipal Stadium, also had toyed with the idea of moving to Seattle.

However, last week Finley announced Oakland was his choice, adding that Seattle "does not presently have the facilities for major league sports but the Pacific Northwest is a great area and will be wonderful for baseball in the future."

As for Wednesday's meeting on Finley's request to move, one source said "although the A's drew well in Kansas City, there's no question they will do better in a new area with a new stadium. I'm sure Charlie will have all the facts and that surveys have been made."

"As to his chances of getting approval? Well, let's just say he has a better chance than he did when he wanted to move to Louisville a couple of years ago."

Utility Man Now Leading Scorer

NEW YORK (AP) — Little Yvan Cournoyer, a utility player who has gained a regular position with the powerful Montreal Canadiens, heads the National Hockey League in scoring after the first week of the 1967-68 season today.

Cournoyer, a right winger skating on a line with Jean Beliveau and John Ferguson, has collected three goals and four assists for seven points. Cournoyer was used primarily on power plays the past several seasons.

Bobby Hull of Chicago is second with six points on three goals and three assists. Four members of the new California Seals are among seven players tied for third place at five points with Beliveau plus John McKenzie and Fred Stanfield of Boston. The Seals' players are Kent Douglas, Billy Harris, Gerry Egan and Billy Burke.

Charlie Hodge of California has the best average among the goalies. He has yielded only one goal in two games for an 0.50 mark.

Two other members of expansion teams are deadlocked for most penalty minutes at 12. They are Dave Balon of Minnesota and Brian Kilrea of Los Angeles.

To Tell Youths About Hippies and Beatniks

David Wilkerson, author of the best seller, "The Cross and the Switchblade," will address a gathering of teen-agers and parents Saturday evening, October 21 at 7:30 o'clock and Sunday afternoon, October 22 at 2:30 p.m.

Ten years ago, David Wilkerson went to New York City on a one man mission—to change the lives of teenage gang members. Nicky Cruz, leader of the suicide Mau-Mau gang, rewarded the minister with a slap and a spit and a "go to hell!" Today, Nicky Cruz is an ordained minister working with youngsters himself in an ever-expanding ministry to gangs, narcotic addicts, prostitutes, beatniks, and goodniks.

Five years ago, Mr. Wilkerson was the first to expose the fact that glue sniffing was a fad among urban junior high schoolers, and he began to warn against its growing threat. Today, he is exposing the hippies' new and close to lethal, STP (Equal to a gram of LSD, and after-effects of an STP trip are permanent.) Few major youth leaders are as realistic as Mr. Wilkerson when he counsels youth from the platform about sex, hard narcotics, and the recent outbreaks of thrill seeking through the use of "mellow yellow" (banana scrappings) and decomposed peppers. Mr. Wilkerson states, "I am often accused of over-simplifying the problem and the solution because I preach a simple message of faith in Jesus Christ." "But," says he, "no one can deny it works."

Mr. Wilkerson is now challenging the hippie crowd by carrying his message to the Haight-Ashbury section of San Francisco, New York's Greenwich Village, and Soho section of London. Bells jingle in the aisles as hippies move forward to accept Christ. Recently in San Diego, beatnik hecklers hurled obscenities at Mr. Wilkerson in response to his hard-hitting message addressed to "the run-away generation". Nevertheless, these long-haired boys wearing soft broad-brimmed hats and short-haired girls wearing chains and boots stood side by side with "goodniks" in response to his appeal to decide for Christ.

Mr. Wilkerson, whose crusades now encompass major cities throughout the world, is founder and director of Teen Challenge. There are now 21 such centers where narcotic addicts are cured through faith in God and spiritual therapy. For these, Teen Challenge also maintains a farm and training center, providing vocational and religious training. Former mainline addicts (80 percent of those who have gone through the program have maintained their cure) have joined Mr. Wilkerson in his crusades.

Hippies and diddyboppers call him "rascal"; narcotic addicts testify to the reality of his message that God can heal them; prostitutes and "goodniks" testify to radical changes in their lives. Mr. Wilkerson speaks a profound message in simple and relevant language, often mixing the gospel with teenage jargon. Mr. Wilkerson claims that his challenge to youth boredom was once summed up by the German poet Goethe, "Until you have experienced dying and rebirth, you are but a sullen guest on the gloomy earth."

Ed Lopat Quits as KC Assistant

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Ed Lopat, a coach, manager, scout, vice president and administrative assistant for owner Charles O. Finley of the Kansas City Athletics since 1962, has resigned saying he hasn't always been in agreement with Finley's policies.

Lopat said he informed Finley of his decision Monday and their parting was amicable.

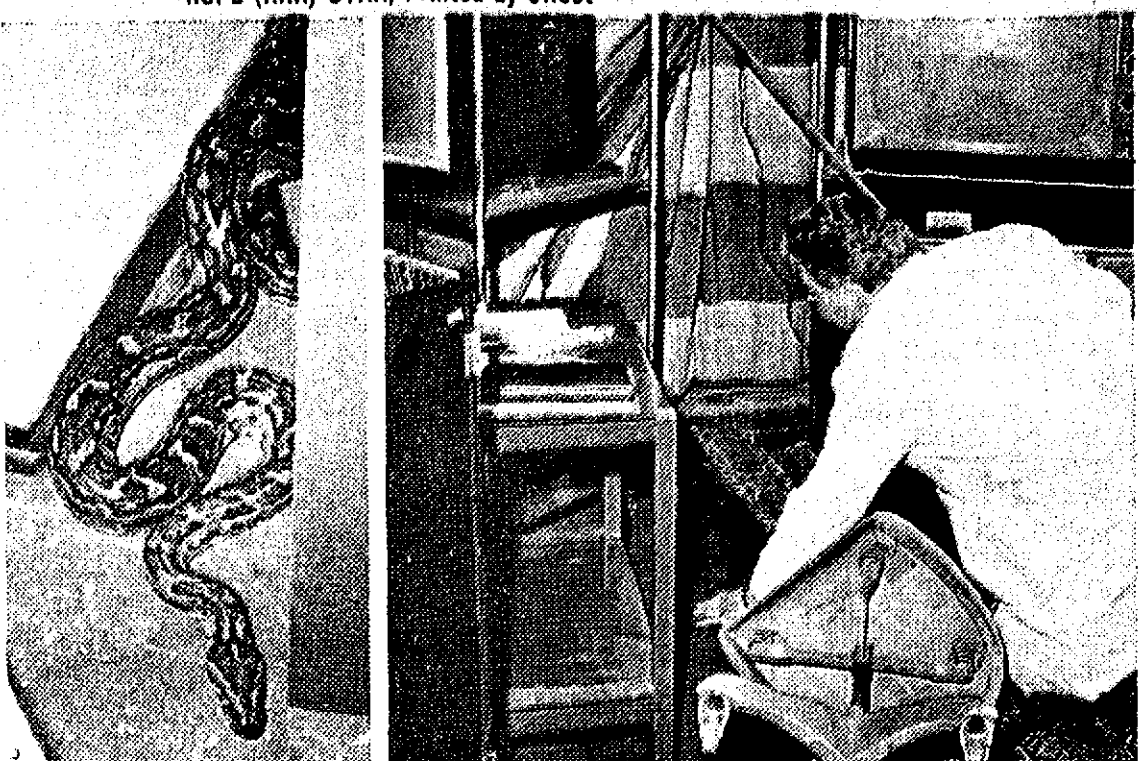

But Finley, contacted in Chicago Monday night, said "Mr. Lopat's successor was selected two weeks ago and the announcement will be made in a few days." He declined to elaborate.

Lopat's resignation leaves only three baseball men in the A's front office handling player personnel. They are Eddie Robinson, administrative assistant for the minors; Ray Swallow, administrative assistant for scouting; and Art Patrick, assistant farm director.

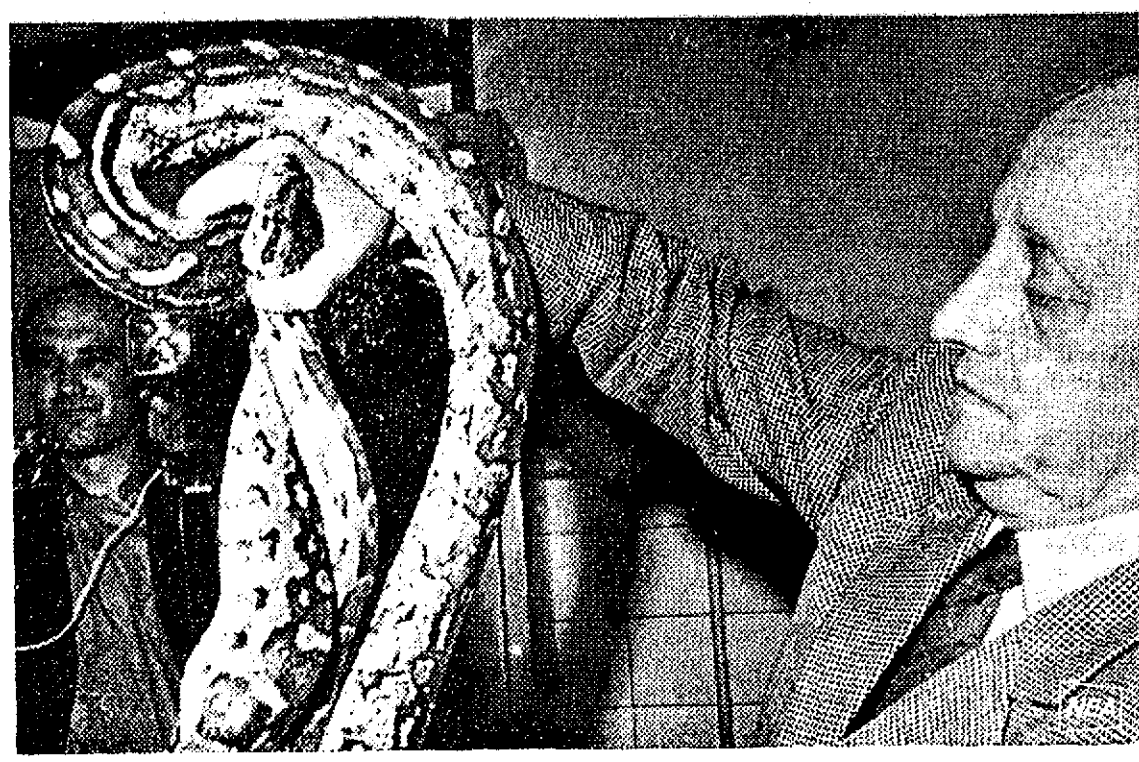

"I hope to remain in baseball," Lopat said. "I'll just have to get busy and see what I can find. There are a couple of possibilities."

The former New York Yankee pitcher said his decision wasn't a snap judgment.

Russia Appears to Be Ready to Seek Middle East Peace

By TOM HOGE
Associated Press Writer
UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The arrival at the U.N. General Assembly of Vasily V. Kuznetsov, a Soviet deputy foreign minister and key negotiator, raised hopes today that the Russians may be ready to join in seeking peace in the Middle East.

A high-level Communist delegate said that Kuznetsov's arrival Monday was "a good sign" for possible solution of the Arab-Israeli stalemate. Kuznetsov was sent to New York in 1962 to negotiate with the United States over the Cuban missile crisis.

Jordan, one of the chief Arab participants in discussions on the Middle East, has sent its new foreign minister, Abdul Moslem Rifal to New York to take part in the talks.

The United States is keeping a tight lid, however, on its role in the talks on the Middle East.

U.S. sources confirmed that Ambassador Arthur J. Goldberg was meeting with Egyptian Foreign Minister Mahmoud Riad, but they said nothing would be made public on the substance of the talks. An Egyptian source said they met Monday for 90 minutes.

Riad had met at least once before with Goldberg and conferred for 90 minutes with Secretary of State Dean Rusk in the opening days of the General Assembly.

Israeli Foreign Minister Abba Eban left New York Sunday for Jerusalem, but he was expected to return in a week or 10 days.

Attempts have been going on for more than three weeks to work out a meaningful resolution on the Middle East deadlock for the Security Council.

One proposal reported to have considerable support is for the council to list general principles for a settlement and authorize Secretary-General U Thant to name a special representative to work out details between the opposing sides.

The United States has been seeking Moscow's support for renewal of a combined attempt to win the endorsement of the Arab world for a resolution that would combine the two main sticking points:

— Israeli withdrawal from territories of Egypt, Jordan and Syria seized during the June war.

— Arab recognition of Israel's right to exist as a nation and an end to the 20-year Arab state of war against Israel.

Governor in Fuss Over LBJ Resolution

By JACK BELL
AP Political Writer

ABOARD SS INDEPENDENCE (AP) — A fight over a resolution endorsing President Johnson's Vietnam policy shaped up today as the floating National Governors Conference steamed toward the Virgin Islands.

Utah Democrat Calvin L. Rampton said he would offer his 44 colleagues a motion backing Johnson's pursuit of the war. He received immediate support from the conference chairman, Gov. William L. Guy, D-N.D., who said: "I favor a resolution in support of the commander in chief."

But the plan ran into resistance from Michigan Gov. George Romney, a recent critic of the administration's war policy and a potential Republican candidate for the 1968 presidential nomination.

Regardless of the resolution's merits, Romney said in an interview, "whenever there's an effort to use this conference for matters other than matters relating to the states, it tends to be disruptive and divisive."

Other Republicans and Democrats seemed eager to head off a possibly harsh confrontation on Vietnam.

"There's no need for any great debate," said Illinois Democrat Otto Kerner, pointing out that a conference of governors announced support for Johnson's position earlier in the year and that 20 Democratic governors lined up with the President in a caucus Sunday.

Spa Would Legalize Mixed Drinks

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — The Garland County Citizens Committee organized here Monday and adopted a resolution seeking the legalized sale of mixed drinks.

The 120 persons who were present at the meeting elected Dr. John Hoffman, a Hot Springs optometrist, president of the committee. Hoffman was an unsuccessful candidate for state senator last year.

The members of the newly-formed committee also agreed to support the Hot Springs Chamber of Commerce in seeking the legislation needed to legalize the sale of mixed drinks.

Both the committee and the chamber say they do not want gambling in the city, but both groups contend that the legal sale of mixed drinks and big name entertainment are necessary to the Hot Springs economy.

Les Green, executive vice president of the Chamber of Commerce, said he had met with an unidentified group about obtaining live entertainment for Hot Springs on a private club basis.

The funds are to be used to finance the training of 135 persons from low-income families at Little Rock and Fort Smith.

Man Injured Fatally in Rogers Wreck

ROGERS, Ark. (AP) — Clifford Cartwright, 40, of St. Clair, Mo., was injured fatally early today when the truck he was driving collided with a Frisco Railway freight train that was backing across a crossing at Rogers.

Police said witnesses reported that it appeared as if Cartwright slowed down but was unable to stop on the wet pavement.

The train conductor, Hugh Crum, 65, of Monett, Mo., was thrown off and hospitalized at Rogers Memorial Hospital in good condition with a broken leg.

Cartwright was driving a truck belonging to Mrs. Allison's Cookie Co. of St. Louis.

Over 2 Inches of Rain Soaks Part of State

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Two and one-half inch rains soaked parts of Arkansas during the night, but the rainfall was expected to end in all sections of the state by tonight.

No rain is forecast for Wednesday. Temperatures will remain cool with a warming trend expected Thursday.

Most of the heavy rain fell in the north half of the state Monday with only around one-half inch reported in extreme southeast areas.

Memphis reported 1.70 inches, Harrison 1.22, Walnut Ridge, 1.19, Fayetteville 1.02, El Dorado .24, Fort Smith .51.

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK, Captain J. T. West was a spunky man. Back in 1876 he retired from successful Mississippi Boating business and moved to Hope, (a cabin boy under him was a youngster named Samuel L. Clemens whom the West nicknamed Mark Twain.)

In 1893 The Bank of Hope came into existence with spunky Captain West as its first president. Later known as the First National Bank of Hope, it still maintains the old riverman's aggressiveness and business institution.

Since opening the doors of its new building at Second and Walnut in 1959, First National has almost doubled its customer deposits, and grown into a financial institution offering a full range of services to all Southwest Arkansas. Maybe it's because the Spirit of spunky Captain West is still there.

Development, Research Cut Is Target

WASHINGTON (AP) — As Congress and the administration bicker about whether and where the budget can be cut, one plump and prominent target has been mentioned more and more often: the $17 billion program for research and development.

Research appropriations are scattered among more than a dozen departmental budgets, but a compilation pulled together on order for congressional use clearly identifies the departments and agencies that spend most of the money:

Defense, $7.67 billion; National Aeronautics and Space Administration, $5.3 billion; Atomic Energy Commission, $1.64 billion; Health, Education and Welfare Department, $1.18 billion. Next behind these giants is the new Transportation Department with $321 million, of which $188 million is for development of the supersonic transport.

All these figures relate, not to appropriations, but to the amounts the departments intend to spend during the fiscal year that began last July 1. Appropriations always relate largely to future spending.

The new appropriations asked this year for research and development total $17.69 billion. But the government proposes to use only $9.30 billion of the new authority during the year; the rest of the $17.26 billion programmed spending for this year would come from past appropriations—a circumstance not lost on economy-minded congressmen.

Some of these contend government research has been extended beyond all measure of practicality. "They've even got a project for research on what ought to be researched," one snorted.

Others, conceding that practically all government-supported research is useful, nevertheless insist that when the country is running deep into the red, the test should be what research is imminently needed.

The huge defense research and development total includes work in everything from missile improvements to studies of temperature, salinity and biological content of water.

The space agency proposes to spend $358 billion on the manned space flight program, including the Apollo system for moon landings. Another $600 million would go for such programs as orbiting observatories.

A substantial portion of the AEC's research and development is directly military and presumably would be politically hard to reduce—$265 million for nuclear weapons development and $256 million for testing such weapons underground.

U.S. Intelligence Puzzled Over Some New Gong Weapons

By FRED S. HOFFMAN
AP Military Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. intelligence experts are puzzling over mysterious shrouded shapes spotted in a Communist Chinese railway just above the North Vietnamese border.

At first, some experts thought the shapes might be tanks covered by tarpaulins on rail flatcars.

But sources say there is a growing belief the objects may be heavy self-propelled artillery, possibly bigger than any guns yet used by the North Vietnamese.

U.S. Marines at Con Thien already have been battered by Communist artillery from north of the boundary separating North Vietnam from South Vietnam.

About eight tarpaulin-covered objects are among the mass of materiel which U.S. authorities said has been building up in the big rail complex of P'ing Hsiang, which lies on the important train line between Hanoi and Nanning in south China.

Officials said the Chinese obviously have been stockpiling supplies and rail rolling stock at P'ing Hsiang in preparation for the extended period of bad weather, now closing in.

Under cover of this heavy rain and clouds, the Communists can hope to move supplies over the battered—but repaired—rail line to Hanoi while foul weather badly hampers U.S. bombing.

Sources said self-propelled artillery has been reported being unloaded from Soviet ships in Chinese ports.

Some government sources said there are indications the Soviets may be bypassing the port of Haiphong with war material and landing it instead in Red China, for shipment by rail and truck to North Vietnam.

The shapes which appear in U.S. reconnaissance photos are of the dimensions of either tanks or heavy self-propelled artillery, sources said. As always, they would not discuss the origin of the pictures.

One source said it looked as though the guns under the shroud might be somewhere between 140 and 160 millimeters.

Marine authorities in Washington have said the biggest guns known to be firing at Con Thien are about 130 millimeters. Such guns could reach about 18 miles south of the Ben Hai River boundary between North and South Vietnam, covering much of the important Marine front and extending to a point just above the city of Quang Tri.

Recently, Pentagon officials said somewhere around 70 Communist artillery pieces have been bombarding these Marine positions.

Ordinance officers suggested the mystery weapons possibly awaiting movement south from P'ing Hsiang could be 152 millimeter Soviet heavy assault guns.

These have about a 20-mile reach and hurl a heavier projectile than the artillery the Communists now have trained on Con Thien.

Each Party Keeps a Watchdog

By CARL P. LEUBSDORF
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — When the House of Representatives uses extraordinary procedures to try to speed up its work, Reps. H.R. Gross and Durward G. "Doc" Hall are all ears.

One of those two Republicans is always there—and usually both—to make sure the Democratic majority doesn't pull any fast ones.

"We're just two fellows who are vitally interested in rules and procedures and in protection of the rights of the minority," said Hall, 57, a self-styled "hillbilly doctor" who has been in Congress since 1961.

"I just want to know what's going on," said Gross, a 68-year-old former news reporter and radio commentator who has been there nearly 20 years.

Gross admits he has been at this "quite a spell." One reason is that his party has controlled the House for only two years since he has been a member.

In former years, Gross' partner was former Rep. Clare Hoffman of Michigan.

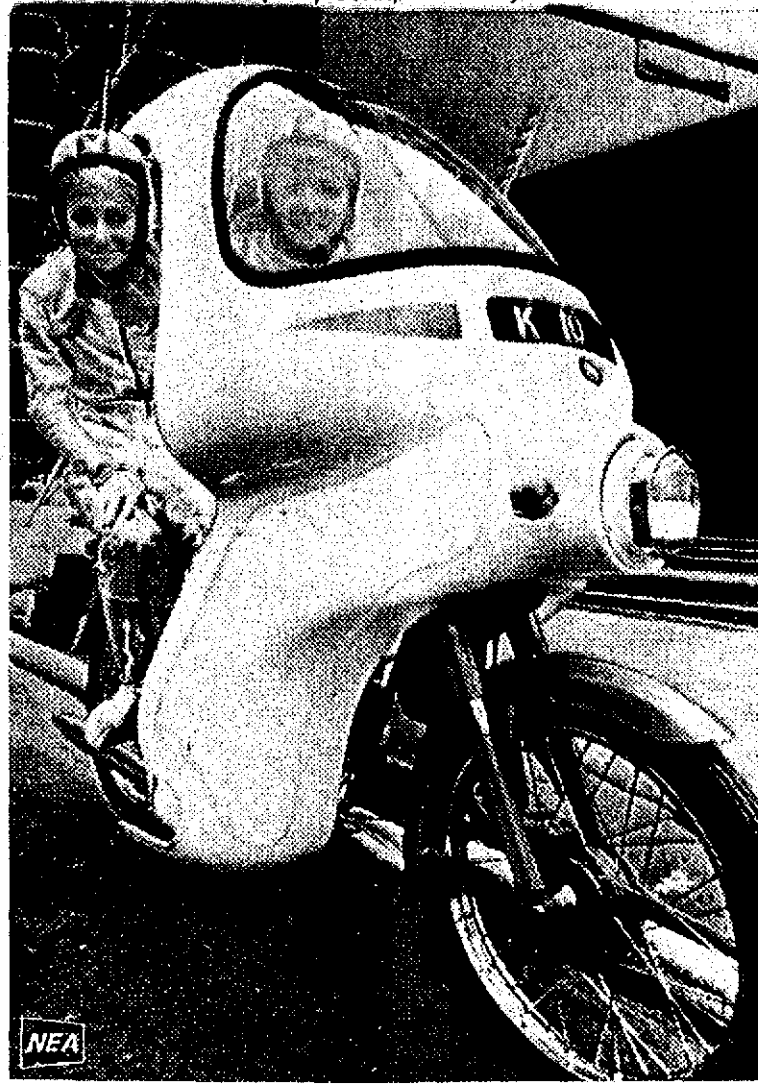

Shortly after Hoffman left the House, Hall organized a mass effort by Republicans and Southern Democrats in September 1965 to put every possible parliamentary roadblock in the way of the Democratic leadership, which was trying to use speed-up procedures to bring bills more easily to the House floor for action.

By the time the House finally adjourned at 12:31 a.m. the following morning, there had been a record 23 quorum calls or roll-call votes, each lasting about 25 minutes.

Both are Midwestern conservatives with usually dour expressions. Hall is from Springfield, Mo., Gross from Waterloo, Iowa. Gross was the only survivor in 1964 when Democrats decimated Iowa's GOP House delegation.

The two make their points by objecting when unanimous consent is required for House action, by demanding attendance roll calls when many members are absent and others are in a hurry and by raising intricate parliamentary objections.

"We put each other on notice when one has to be away so that there will be coverage," Hall said.

But it's a rare day when either is absent at noon when the House meets, and usually one or the other demands the first quorum call to prod the necessary majority of members to be present for the day's business.

"I think that brought me to Gross' attention," Hall said, adding that the two have been brought more closely together by his designation as one of the Republicans assigned to study for possible objections those bills scheduled for passage by unanimous consent.

Gross considers himself "an unofficial objector," a task which he says requires "the ability to get up and ask questions and object if you get the wrong answers or inadequate answers."

"It's not pleasant to get up and object to another member's bill," Gross added. "It's time consuming, and it isn't pleasant." But he said "a good many members don't pay much attention" to these bills and someone should.

Their triumphs are usually more fleeting than permanent. But often they lead to full debate on a bill and a chance to amend it, which Hall says is really what they are trying to make possible.

APL Seeking Money for Expansion

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas Power & Light Co. asked the Public Service Commission Monday for approval to amend its charter in order to expand the base of its capital structure.

AP&L wants permission to obtain consent from stockholders to increase the total number of authorized shares of common stock from 10 million to 20 million shares of $12.50 par value common stock.

The company already is authorized to issue 1 million shares of $100 par value preferred stock.

AP&L also asked for permission to request stockholders to remove the limitation on the insurance of first mortgage bonds. Presently, AP&L is limited to $250 million of first mortgage bonds that may be outstanding at any one time.

The firm will ask its stockholders to approve the issuance of the maximum of $1 billion of first mortgage bonds.

A stockholder meeting will be held Feb. 22 to vote on both the increase in allowable first mortgage bonds and the increase in the total number of capital shares of stocks.

Nothing New in Union, Ford Talks

By KIT KINCADE
Associated Press Writer

DETROIT (AP) — Negotiators for the United Auto Workers and Ford Motor Co. early today ended their longest bargaining session since the union struck Sept. 7.

After meeting for more than 16 hours at Ford headquarters in suburban Dearborn, the bargainers broke off their talks at 3:15 a.m., ending hopes that they were engaged in round-the-clock discussions which would herald an agreement on a new contract.

They planned to meet again today at 11 a.m.

Walter P. Reuther, UAW president, and Malcolm L. Denise, Ford vice president for labor relations, were expected to lead their negotiators back to the table.

Despite the length of the session, and an optimistic statement issued Monday night, there was no solid evidence that a settlement would come today or even in the next few days.

The joint statement described the negotiations "as serious, good-faith collective bargaining."

It was the first statement issued through a news blackout since the two sides announced last Friday that the company had made a new contract offer and that the union had responded with a counterproposal.

It was issued as negotiators took an hour break for dinner and came shortly after a bargaining table source told The Associated Press that the company appeared to be bending on the union's No. 1 demand—guaranteed annual income.

The bargaining table source said that Ford had given an "inkling" of willingness to meet the demand for guaranteed annual income.

But he said that no figures had been laid on the table by Monday afternoon.

How can any good player go down at four spades? The Italian South had no trouble at all making the contract. Of course, he got there without adverse bidding and a club opening took care of all his problems.

The bidding in the box shows what happened when the American International team held North-South cards. Giorgio Belladonna didn't come all the way from Rome to pass, and he bid two diamonds over North's one no-trump. Walter Avarelli felt the same way and found a raise to three diamonds with his one jack and four trumps.

Apparently Belladonna thought that his partner would have a little more for his raise. In any event Belladonna elected to double the four spade contract.

Avarelli opened the ten of diamonds. This lost to South's ace. South led the ten of spades and overtook with dummy's jack. The spade spots were such that he knew he would be able to force one entry to dummy.

Belladonna had looked over dummy carefully and noted that his partner could not have much for his diamond raise except a singleton trump and four diamonds. He might have the king of hearts or even the ace of clubs. In either event it was imperative that clubs be attacked immediately and Belladonna led the queen.

This could have solved South's problems but he couldn't see the king of clubs in Belladonna's hand. South decided that Avarelli held four clubs to the king and that his only way to make the contract would be to duck the first club, win the second and eventually shed two clubs on two hearts. He ducked; Belladonna continued with the deuce; South played his ace and lost his contract.

Money Not for Tech School Land

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The state Board of Education cannot spend $25,000 from the Vocational Technical School appropriation to buy 11 acres in Conway County the attorney general's office said Monday.

Education Commissioner A. W. Ford indicated that the board would attempt to get the legislature to authorize the purchase of the special session Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller plans for early next year.

The board wants to purchase 44 city lots from Sheriff and Mrs. Marlin Hawkins. The land would replace land being taken for Interstate 40. Asst. Atty. Gen. Henry Glinger said the 1967 General Assembly's appropriation of $556,000 was for building and equipping new schools and not for land purchase.

Keep Feet Clean and Dry To Control Infection

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.

Q—My feet keep breaking out with little blisters. I have gone to skin specialists but nothing helps. What do you advise?

A—You probably have a ringworm infection. These infections are notoriously hard to get rid of. Control of the condition is easier if you keep your feet clean and dry. Change your stockings daily and wear open-toed shoes. The most recent solution to be used on this type of infection is tolnaftate (Tinactin), obtainable only on a doctor's prescription.

Q—How can I get rid of a fungus infection in my ears?

A—These infections can be cured by using ear drops that contain crystal violet, salicylic acid or bichloride of mercury. If one doesn't work, switch to another.

Q—I own two dogs that I keep in the house all the time. I am told that dogs carry a fungus in their fur that causes lung infections. Is this true?

A—Fungus diseases have become a sort of bogey man lurking in every dark corner. The fungus infections of dogs and other animals are usually not infectious for man, and those that are involve the skin rather than the lungs. The only lung disease spread to man by dog fur is aspergillosis and that is not a fungus disease, but an allergy.

Q—My doctor says I have Raynaud's disease. The ends of my fingers get blue and painful. What causes this?

A—The cause of this disease is unknown. The victim gets attacks of spasmodic constriction in the small arteries of his fingers or toes. The spasms may be triggered by emotional stress or exposure to cold. Smoking aggravates the condition. A vitamin B-6 deficiency is sometimes a contributing cause.

Q—My wife has Raynaud's disease. She is taking calcium tablets and some capsules to improve her circulation. If she stops these for a few days, the attacks come back. Is there any cure for this disease?

A—There is no cure for it but it can be controlled. Many drugs are used to dilate the blood vessels. Since your wife is taking one of these under supervision, I would not worry about harmful effects. If any develop, your doctor can switch to another drug. In addition to the treatment prescribed, your wife should protect her hands from the cold and use no tobacco. Some victims of Raynaud's disease of long standing are helped by cutting some of the sympathetic nerve roots. The effects of this operation, however, are not permanent.

Fight Against Moves to Cut Imports

WASHINGTON (AP) — The administration is hustling five Cabinet members up to Capitol Hill Wednesday for a fight against moves to limit imports.

Protectionist sentiment has brought on proposals to limit imports of such diverse products as zinc, ground fish, furs and baseball gloves.

State Department officials say more than two-fifths of U.S. imports—which totaled about $25 billion last year—would be affected if all the proposed limitations were adopted.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk will head the administration witnesses before the Senate Finance Committee, Cabinet mates Alexander B. Trowbridge of Commerce, W. Willard Wirtz of Labor, Orville L. Freeman of Agriculture and Stewart L. Udall of Interior also are listed for testimony.

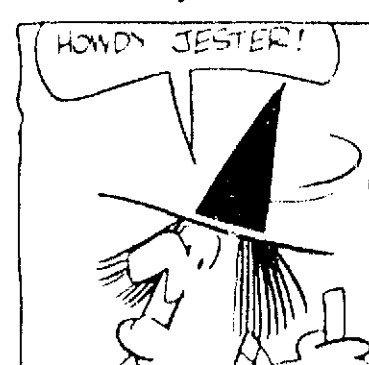

So is William M. Roth, President Johnson's special representative for trade negotiations, who handled much of the dealings during the Geneva tariff talks. They ended earlier this year with agreement among principal non-Communist traders on a wide variety of tariff cuts.

The State Department said Rusk's "decision to appear personally underlines the seriousness of the current protectionist threat to the continued prosperity of the American people and the foreign relations of the United States."

An act of Congress passed in 1962 authorized the use of postage stamps as money.

Flicker of Hope in Steel Strike

By ROBERT A. DOBKIN
Associated Press Writer
PITTSBURGH (AP) — Strikers and trucking companies appeared to be only one hour apart today on the crucial wall-time issue in the violent strike of steel haulers.

It brought a flicker of hope—but also indications that the one-hour difference could prove to be a tough obstacle.

Howard Miller, chairman of the 68-company National Steel Carriers Association, said his group probably would accept a revised plan worked out by governor's representatives of seven states.

It calls for steel haulers to get paid $13.70 for every hour they wait at steel mills for their trucks to be loaded beyond four hours. They would wait free the first four hours.

A spokesman for the 10,000 to 20,000 strikers said striking independent haulers probably would accept the same amount of money, but with only three hours' free wait time.

"With three hours and the same money, the trucks would be back on the road by next week," he said. "I'll bet on it."

But one striker expressed bitterness over the revision, saying, "Every time we go back into the conference room we get hosed down."

Last week the association rejected an earlier plan approved by the strikers in seven states.

"We are of the opinion that our previous objections have been eliminated," Miller said Monday night. He announced that the modified plan would be presented to the association's board of directors in Chicago Wednesday.

Daniel Berger, an attorney for the strikers, declined to say whether the revised plan would be put to a vote by strikers.

To press their demands, the strikers have virtually halted the highway movement of steel, putting a stranglehold on the industry which ships about 50 percent of its steel by truck.

Violence has flared almost every day since the strike heated up five weeks ago.

Committee's Budget Cut Doesn't Seem to Satisfy Anyone

By EDMOND LEBRETON
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Appropriation Committee's move toward a $2.85 billion budget cut apparently has satisfied neither Republican critics of the Johnson administration nor Democrats who say the price of a tax increase is a deep spending slash.

Chairman Wilbur D. Mills, D-Ark., whose Ways and Means Committee shelved President Johnson's tax boost proposal two weeks ago, declined direct comment on the Appropriation Committee action. But he said he has no plans to reconvene the Ways and Means Committee to consider tax legislation.

Mills has said the House would not pass a tax increase bill without spending cuts between $5 billion and $10 billion—and perhaps not even then.

Rep. Frank T. Bow of Ohio, senior Republican member of the Appropriations Committee, said in an interview he'll still try on the House floor to win adoption of a $5 billion spending cut.

The Appropriations Committee rewrote an emergency financing bill Monday to direct a $2.85 billion cut in federal spending—about $1.4 billion of it in the current fiscal year.

Bow lost on a party-line vote when he tried in committee for a $5 billion cut all in the current year. But he said "I think we might win on a close vote" when he renews his fight Wednesday during House consideration of the bill.

Original purpose of the bill was to grant once more interim spending authority to government agencies whose appropriations for the budget year that began July 1 still haven't been approved by Congress.

Bow said the committee budget cut "is a step in the right direction but it still doesn't do enough."

The committee bill would require a 5 percent payroll cut for federal executive agencies, require them to absorb without extra funds the $625 million pay increase now pending, and cut research spending 10 percent. Exceptions are made for Vietnam and other urgent spending.

Bow and other Republicans want a much deeper slash in actual expenditures to reduce the prospective budget deficit.

Some Republicans say also they may attempt to extend the reduction in government payroll funds to the employees of Congress and the judiciary.

Anti-draft Protests Over Nation

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Scores of persons have been arrested in antiwar and anti-draft demonstrations staged by thousands in cities from coast to coast. Hundreds burned what they said were their draft cards.

Spokesmen at a demonstration in New York said their action was part of a nationwide mobilization of those resisting the draft. Protests took place in 30 cities across the country.

Some 5,000 anti-draft demonstrators jammed onto the University of California's Berkeley campus Monday night in defiance of a court injunction barring any campus antiwar teach-in.

No action was taken against the protesters. A university spokesman said, "It is not in the least interest of public safety to move in with a wedge of police."

The protest came after police broke up a disorderly blockade of the Oakland Army Induction Center Monday with 125 arrests including that of folksinger Joan Baez.

At Boston's Arlington Street church the strain of "We Shall Overcome" sounded as 67 youths, mostly college students, burned their cards at the altar Monday.

Afterward, 220 more youths surrendered their draft cards to clergymen. The total number of demonstrators was swelled to 3,500 by students who arrived from colleges and universities throughout New England.

"In the name of student deferment," read a Boston newspaper ad signed by 200 faculty members of different schools, "the son of the middle-class white American is all too often spared the fate reserved for the poor and black."

Four demonstrators were arrested in Chicago after some 250

The Southwest District Junior Miss Pageant will be held at Hope High School at 7:30 p.m. on Saturday, Oct. 21.

Ballots Must Be Delivered Election Night

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The attorney general's office said Monday that election judges must deliver ballot materials on election night in person to the courthouse.

The opinion, written by Asst. Atty. Gen. Thomas Glaze, said the ballot materials cannot be delivered by a deputy sheriff.

Mrs. Nancy Hensley Potter of North Little Rock, a Pulaski County Justice of the Peace, requested the opinion. She asked for the opinion after seeing the instructions mailed election judges and clerks in the Sept. 26 school elections in Pulaski County.

The election judges were instructed to give the ballot materials to deputy sheriffs. The deputies were then supposed to deliver the materials to the County Board of Election Commissioners.

Mrs. Potter said she felt that the instructions are contrary to the law since a third party is placed between the judges and the election commissioners.

Officials Are Puzzled Over Soviet Position on How to End War

By HENRY S. BRADSHAW
Associated Press Writer
MOSCOW (AP) — Diplomats here profess perplexity about the Soviet Union's current position on how the war in Vietnam might be brought to an end.

The position seems no longer simply a matter of demanding a halt to U.S. air raids on North Vietnam, withdrawal of American forces from the South and recognition of the Viet Cong's National Liberation Front—the NLF—as the only legitimate representative of the southern people.

Possibly nothing much has changed. But the whole history of Communist leaders' careful choice of words to reflect unstated policies argues against this.

One possibility is that the Soviet Union is working behind scenes to try to soften positions of the participants in the war, especially those of Washington and Hanoi, so that peace talks might be arranged.

Perhaps the most intriguing possibility is that the Soviet Union is seeking to split the Vietnam problem into two parts—stopping U.S. air raids on the North and negotiations with the NLF—to prevent Hanoi from blocking a settlement.

Some diplomats put this interpretation on the most recent statement by a Soviet leader on ending the war. Premier Alexei N. Kosygin said two weeks ago that the way to solve the Vietnam problem was to end the bombing of North Vietnam and recognize the NLF's program.

Kosygin and other Soviet leaders before and since did not restate the whole package of North Vietnamese demands or even refer directly to Hanoi's four points that summarize them. Previously they were usually mentioned in top-level Soviet speeches.

The Soviet Union has also not reacted quite so sharply to recent U.S. raids around Hanoi as it did to earlier extensions of raiding targets.

The NLF program adopted in August calls for "an independent, democratic, peaceful, neutral and prosperous South Vietnam" with eventual "reunification" between the North and South.

Splitting the Vietnam problem could open the possibility of peace talks in the South while the North simply dropped out of the war once it was no longer bombed. Diplomats here speculate that Kremlin leaders may have this in mind.

This could reduce the influence on events of Red China, an advocate of fighting on as long as necessary. The Soviet Union is assumed by diplomats here to want the war ended.

21 Marines Killed in New Attack

By GEORGE ESPER
Associated Press Writer
SAIGON (AP) — The U.S. Command today announced a new ground operation aimed at taking pressure off South Vietnam's northernmost provinces.

The command said 21 Marines and 44 Communists had been killed in the first week of the operation and 167 Marines wounded.

In the air war, U.S. Navy planes returned to Haiphong for repeat raids on a missile helicopter assembly base, a major highway bridge and three SAM antiaircraft missile sites.

Possibly 5,000 men were thrown into the new ground operation—Medina—28 miles south of the embattled demilitarized zone. They included several battalions from the 1st Marine Regiment, a special battalion landing team from the 7th Fleet's Ready Amphibious Force and South Vietnamese troops.

The operation began Oct. 11 but was not announced until today for security reasons. Marine intelligence reports indicate there are 17 Communist battalions operating around the DMZ and in Quang Tri Province, perhaps more than 7,000 enemy troops.

Operation Medina is under way in the dense, mountainous terrain near the southern boundary of Quang Tri Province, nine miles south of the provincial capital of Quang Tri.

U.S. spokesmen said heavy monsoon rains were making the operation difficult. The heaviest fighting so far occurred last Thursday when 300 Marines ran up against about 400 North Vietnamese troops in a battle that raged for 4½ hours.

Backed by artillery and helicopter gunships, the Marines reported killing 30 of the enemy, while eight Marines were killed and 46 wounded.

Since then, there have been numerous scattered contacts between small units.

U.S. Navy bombers streaked in from carriers in the Gulf of Tonkin Monday to attack a huge military compound three miles south of the center of Haiphong for the third time in eight days and the northern approach to the Kien An highway bridge 1.7 miles from the heart of the city.

The military compound contains about 70 army barracks and other buildings where Russian-built missiles and helicopters arriving by sea are assembled.

Won't Delay Suit Over Asphalt Price
LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Chancellor Murray O. Reed indicated Monday he would not postpone action on a taxpayer's suit which alleges that five petroleum companies conspired to overcharge the state Highway Commission on the purchase of asphalt.

A similar suit, filed by the state, is pending in Federal District Court. Reed was asked to postpone action on the chancery court suit until the state suit was tried.

Reed refused Monday to postpone the trial of the taxpayer's suit, filed by George Dewey Nelson of Little Rock.

J. L. Shaver Jr., representing the Highway Commission, argued in favor of the motion to postpone Nelson's suit. He said postponement would be to the taxpayers' benefit.

Reed said he saw no reason why attorneys could not proceed with trying the suits.

Group Favors Military Pay Increase

WASHINGTON (AP) — A three-day pay increase for military personnel to add an ultimate $2.5 billion a year to their pay was approved today by the House Armed Services Committee.

The vote was 49 to 0.

The bill would provide a 4.5 percent pay increase for members of the armed forces retroactive to Oct. 1, and other increases in the next two years.

The 4.5 percent increase—actually a 5.6 percent boost in basic pay—would cost an estimated $600 million.

Paintings Sell in Spite of Critics

UPPSALA, Sweden (AP)—Although Paris art critics had not been enthusiastic about them, about half of author Henry Miller's 30 water colors at an Uppsala exhibition were sold within hours after the showing opened Sunday.

The 76-year-old American writer and painter had been expected to attend the opening with his 28-year-old Japanese wife, entertainer Ito Tokuda, whom he married Sept. 10, but he cabled his regrets and said health problems kept him away.

Prices for the paintings, all done in the last five years, were not quoted publicly.
